STEVE: FINDING RHYTHM (2 DVDs) Experience the whole harrowing and hilarious history of Steve. Follow the fun, from the group's formation through "Jackson's Difficult Summer," the writing and recording of In The Event of Rhythm, the private gigs and coffee-house concerts, the Sleepwalker Festival, right through the final song of the final show. In addition to the 90 minute feature, enjoy over two-hours of bonus features, including the original Going Nowhere Fast program that gave birth to band and a re-mastered picture disc of ITEOR.

DREAMING OUT LOUD: LIVE AT LOGAN'S COUSINS (DVD) Performances by David and Brian Ullman, Corey Steele, Steve, and the debut of Underhung! Includes "Whitewash, Megalomaniac, Black, If You Can, Begin, Bitches and Funk, Sunday Bloody Sunday, Whammo!," and a host of bonus tracks.

GOING NOWHERE FAST (CD) The recording that started it all! For the first-and-only time on CD, featuring "Knockin' On Heaven's Door, Sympathy for the Devil, Man in the Field," and more!

MUSICAL CHAIRS: LIVE AT CAFÉ FORTY-ONE ELEVEN (2 CDs) The last of the quirky quintet's three performances at Norton's free-will coffee house. Includes rousing renditions of all the tracks from In The Event of Rhythm, as well as blistering covers of "Don't Drink the Water, All Along the Watchtower, Send Me on My Way, One and Miss Sarajevo."

UNSpoken (CD) With 3 versions of this unreleased song, and two beautifully understated b-sides ("In Your Dreams" and "Another Night"), this promising single offers insight into Steve's unfinished third album.

Now is your chance to add to all of the thoroughly mediocre-but-well-intentioned works created by the folk-rock/pop/didge-experiment that is Steve, the fifth greatest band to emerge from the Greater Rittman Area, to your media library!
